Regarding How to Apply for "Emergency Student Support Handout for Continuing Studies (Additional Application)"

The Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT) has informed us about the approval of Student Emergency Support Handout (Additional Application). Please confirm the "Application Guide" below and submit your application to Student Support Unit.

Those who already have applied for this support handout don't have to apply again. To avoid the confusion of the registration, please don't submit the application documents to the office many times.

Those who already have received this support handout have no eligibility to apply again.

1.Target Student

Students who are enrolled in Tokyo Medical and Dental University, economically independent, or suffer cutbacks on part-time jobs due to the spread of novel coronavirus.

※If you are repeating a year, you can still apply for Student Emergency Support, but you need to undergo a separate evaluation.

※If you are on leave of absence, not due to poor academic performance, as long as you meet criteria in the Application Guide, you can apply.

2．Cash Payout Amount

(1) Students exempt from residence tax: 200,000JPY

(2) Other students: 100,000JPY
