

Special Lectures on Clinical Oncology Research

(code: 7241 1st year 2 : 4 units)

Attendance hours	45
No attendance hours	15
Total hours	60

1. Instructor(s)

2. Lecture place

To be announced.

3. Course Purpose and Outline

To overview the field of clinical oncology and acquire the systematic knowledge for palliative medicine and medical oncology.

4. Course Objective(s)

- (1) To acquire the knowledge of comprehensive oncology and the skill for explain to the others.
- (2) To facilitate the discussion in the field of multi-disciplinary collaboration.
- (3) To acquire the method to improve patients' QOL.

5. Lecture Style

Class sizes are kept small to facilitate discussion and communication.

6. Course Outline

Goals/outline:

- (1) To understand comprehensive oncology.
- (2) To have an up-to-date knowledge of palliative medicine and cancer chemotherapy.

7. Grading System

Grades are dependent on attendance, research work, presentation at academic meeting and publications.

8. Prerequisite Reading

To be announced.

9. Reference Materials

Oxford Textbook of Palliative Medicine

DeVita, Hellman, and Rosenberg's Cancer: Principles and Practice of Oncology

10. Important Course Requirements

To be announced.

11. Language used in class

Lectures will be partially conducted in English.

12. Office Hour

13. Note(s) to students

Not in particular.