

ANNUAL PUBLICATIONS

School of Dental Hygiene

1998.1.-2000.3.

I. Staffs and Students (April, 1999)

	1998	1999
Principle	N. Kurosaki	N. Kurosaki
Chief lecturer	K. Endo	K. Endo
Lecturer	K. Kondo	K. Kondo
	N. Yoshida	N. Yoshida

II. Educational Outline of Graduate Course

The purpose of the course is to educate students to serve as compassionate health professionals who are able to apply, what they have learned to their daily work.

With the completion of the course, students are expected to acquire knowledge and techniques in the following.

- 1) Oral health education
- 2) Oral prophylaxis
- 3) Infection control
- 4) Chairside assisting
- 5) Routine management of dental equipment and instruments

III. Research Subjects

- 1) Evaluation of the Students Life and Teachers' Requirement in School of Dental Hygiene.
- 2) Transactional Analysis Proper Education for the student on School of Dental Hygiene.

IV. Program and general information about admission

Duration of the program Two years

Admission quota 30

Applicants must graduate from a high-school or complete 12-year education course.

. Curriculum

Basic subjects	Credit (hour)
Sociology	15
Psychology	45
Biology	30
Chemistry	30
English	55
German	55
Physical education	55

Specialized subjects

Introduction to dental hygiene	30
Anatomy	120
Physiology	30
Pathology	30
Microbiology	30
Pharmacology	45
Preventive dentistry	90
Hygiene & Public health	60
Dietetics	60
Health administration	30

Introduction to dental clinics	60
Conservative dentistry	70
Prosthodontics	30
Oral surgery	65
Pedodontics	30
Orthodontics	30
Oral prophylaxis	245
Chairside assisting	180
Health education	120
Clinial exercise	1,000
Total	2,640

. Original Articles

- 1) Yoshida N.:When urban citizens consult a dentist, determinants of patient satisfaction and intention to continue service utilization:analysis of a survey of patients at dental offices and a hospital of the dental university,1998.
- 2) Shinada K., Kondo K., Endo K., Ohara S., Kawaguchi Y., Kurosaki N.: The influence of dental education on health behaviors of the students,JJADE,14(1):108 ~ 113,1998.
- 3) Yoshida N., Kondo K., Endo K.: Capacity Building of Dental Surgery Assistant at The Faculty of Dental Sciences,University of Peradenia,Sri Lanka - My experience at a Technical Cooperation Project on Dental Education As an Expert dispatched by Japan International Cooperation Agency, JDHA,28(2):77 ~ 81,1999.