

Are you traveling abroad?

Check the safety information for the country/area of your destination.

Check the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan (MOFA)'s Overseas Travel Safety Information Website:
<https://www.anzen.mofa.go.jp/masters/explanation.html>

(About travel advice and warning by MOFA)

<http://www.anzen.mofa.go.jp/> (Japanese only)

->Check the overseas safety information by country and area!

- Safe area? •What are 4 categories?
- Look into details of Spot and Region-wide Safety Information

Ref) Other useful links for safety information

Foreign travel advice (U.K gov)

<https://www.gov.uk/foreign-travel-advice>

Travel State (U.S.A gov)

<https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/international-travel/International-Travel-Country-Information-Pages.html>

Public safety (Canada gov)

<https://travel.gc.ca/travelling/advisories>

Travel Advisories (Australia gov)

<http://www.smartraveller.gov.au/>

You must confirm the "Overseas Travel Safety Guidelines for Students" and follow it.

When the country/area of your destination is...

•Less than Level 1

Make the best preparation with full Understanding of Overseas Travel Safety Information by MOFA and information gathering

•More than Level 2

Cancel traveling

Your travel purpose is Study (A) or Private (B)

A

B

A. Those who travel overseas for the purpose of study, research, participation in academic conferences etc.

All students who travel overseas for the purpose of study, research, participation in academic conferences etc., are required to contact the "Overseas Studies Support Unit (OSSU)" at least 2 weeks in advance of your departure.

Global Gateway Division, Institute of Global Affairs
(4th floor Building 1 West / ossu@ml.tmd.ac.jp)

Feel free to drop by our office any time!

B. Those who travel overseas on personal business; such as private overseas trip

- Register for "TABI-REGI"
- Take out overseas travel insurance
- Be sure to check the risk information!

Beware of safety and security

Have a nice trip!