

Tokyo Medical and Dental University
7th TMDU International Summer Program (ISP2015)
~TMDU Student Symposium 2015~
On Saturday August 29th and Sunday August 30th

Guidelines

Tokyo Medical and Dental University (TMDU) will host the 7th International Summer Program (ISP2015) from August 28 to September 3, 2015 in order to bring together students and young scientists from Asia to introduce their graduate schools and research through various activities; campus tour, laboratory visit, discussion session, and oral and poster sessions.

Please check the ISP web page for references: <http://www.tmd.ac.jp/english/international/program/isp/isp2015/index.html>

In conjunction with the Program, TMDU Student Symposium 2015 will be held on August 29 and 30 at TMDU Yushima Campus, where the participants can present their works and research, exchange ideas and information, and expand their network socially and professionally. There will be oral presentation sessions (two sessions concurrently) and a poster presentation session.

In addition, keynote lectures will be given by Assistant Professors Takashi Zaito (Oral Health Promotion) and TMDU graduate, Project Assistant Professor Md. Sofiqul Islam (International Exchange Center). Also, a cultural tour around the campus will be organized by the TMDU students to allow the participants to relax and enjoy their stay.

We invite submissions of abstracts for oral presentation and poster presentations. The theme of the presentations can be any subject that not limited to, medical and dental studies. The allocated time for oral presentation is 15 minutes, including a question and answer period, and posters will be presented in 10 minutes. Presentations must be given in English. Also, you must attend the full two-days symposium.

Over undergraduate students (Researcher) can apply for this symposium.
