To submit the form:

1. After filling out all of the items on the form, including your signature, please convert the form into a PDF and send it via email to your prospective supervisor. Please also ask your prospective supervisor to put his or her signature in the appropriate place and affix his or her personal seal on the form, and return the completed, signed PDF application form back to you via email. The signature shows that the supervisor is willing to accept you into the department if you pass the ISP International Student PhD Program Special Selection entrance exam, which will be held on August 28, 2015.
2. After you receive the PDF from the prospective supervisor, please check to make sure his or her signature and seal appear on the application form.
3. Next, please submit the signed PDF version of the application form and the original Excel file version of the "Personal History" (it has the information that appears on the PDF, but does not have the signatures) to the International Exchange Section.
